

Nevada Regulatory Disclosure

The Nevada Gaming Commission has requested that the following be brought to the attention of shareholders.

Summary of the Nevada Gaming Regulations

The manufacture, sale and distribution of gaming devices and cashless wagering systems for use or play in Nevada and the operation of slot machine routes and inter-casino linked systems are subject to:

- i) the Nevada Gaming Control Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder (collectively, the “Nevada Act”); and
- ii) various local ordinances and regulations.

Gaming and manufacturing and distribution operations in Nevada are subject to the licensing and regulatory control of the Nevada Gaming Commission (“Nevada Commission”), the Nevada State Gaming Control Board (“Nevada Board”) and various other county and city regulatory agencies, collectively referred to as the “Nevada Gaming Authorities”.

Nevada Regulatory Disclosure

The laws, regulations and supervisory procedures of the Nevada Gaming Authorities are based upon declarations of public policy which are concerned with, among other things:

- i) the prevention of unsavory or unsuitable persons from having a direct or indirect involvement with gaming, manufacturing or distributing activities at any time or in any capacity;
- ii) the establishment and maintenance of responsible accounting practices and procedures;
- iii) the maintenance of effective controls over the financial practices of licensees, including the establishment of minimum procedures for internal fiscal affairs and the safeguarding of assets and revenues, providing reliable record keeping and requiring the filing of periodic reports with the Nevada Gaming Authorities;
- iv) the prevention of cheating and fraudulent practices; and
- v) providing a source of state and local revenues through taxation and licensing fees.

Aristocrat Leisure Limited ("the Company") is registered with the Nevada Commission as a publicly traded corporation (a "Registered Corporation") and has been found suitable to directly or indirectly own the stock of four subsidiaries (collectively, the "Operating Subsidiaries"), two that have been licensed as a manufacturer and distributor, one that has been licensed as a manufacturer, distributor and operator of a slot machine route and one that has been licensed as an operator of an inter-casino linked system. A manufacturer's and distributor's license permits the manufacturing, sale and distribution of gaming devices and cashless wagering systems for use or play in Nevada or for distribution outside of Nevada. A license as an operator of a slot machine route permits the placement and operation of gaming devices upon the business premises of other licensees on a participation basis and also permits the operation of inter-casino linked systems consisting of gaming devices only. A license as an operator of an inter-casino linked system permits the operation of a network of electronically interfaced similar games which are located at two or more licensed gaming establishments that are linked to conduct gaming activities, contests or tournaments.

If it were determined that the Nevada Act was violated by the Company or the Operating Subsidiaries, the registration of the Company and the licenses of the Operating Subsidiaries could be limited, conditioned, suspended or revoked, subject to compliance with certain statutory and regulatory procedures. In addition, the Company, the Operating Subsidiaries and the persons involved could be subject to substantial fines for each separate violation of the Nevada Act at the discretion of the Nevada Commission.

Any beneficial owner of a Registered Corporation's voting securities (in the case of the Company its ordinary shares), regardless of the number of voting securities owned, may be required to file an application, be investigated, and have his suitability as a beneficial owner of the Registered Corporation's voting securities determined if the Nevada Commission has reason to believe that such ownership would otherwise be inconsistent with the declared policies of the state of Nevada. The applicant must pay all costs of investigation incurred by the Nevada Gaming Authorities in conducting any such investigation.

The Nevada Act requires any person who acquires a beneficial ownership of more than 5% of a Registered Corporation's voting securities to report the acquisition to the Nevada Commission. The Nevada Act requires that beneficial owners of more than 10% of a Registered Corporation's voting securities apply to the Nevada Commission for a finding of suitability within thirty days after the Chairman of the Nevada Board mails the written notice requiring such filing. Under certain circumstances, an "institutional investor", as defined in the Nevada Act, which acquires the beneficial ownership of more than 10%, but not more than 15%, of a Registered Corporation's voting securities may apply to the Nevada Commission for a waiver of such finding of suitability if such institutional investor holds the voting securities for investment purposes only. The applicant is required to pay all costs of investigation incurred by the Nevada Gaming Authorities.

The Nevada Act provides that any person who fails or refuses to apply for a finding of suitability or a license within thirty days after being ordered to do so by the Nevada Commission or the Chairman of the Nevada Board, may be found unsuitable. The same restrictions apply to a record holder (in the case of the Company a registered holder) if the record owner, after request, fails to identify the beneficial owner.

Any person found unsuitable and who holds, directly or indirectly, any of the voting securities of a Registered Corporation beyond such period of time as may be prescribed by the Nevada Commission may be guilty of a criminal offence under Nevada law. A Registered Corporation can be sanctioned, including the loss of its approvals if, after it receives notice that a person is unsuitable to be the holder of the voting securities of the Registered Corporation or to have any other relationship with the Registered Corporation, it:

- i) pays that person any dividend or interest upon its voting securities,
- ii) allows that person to exercise, directly or indirectly, any voting right conferred through securities held by that person,
- iii) pays remuneration in any form to that person for services rendered or otherwise, or
- iv) fails to pursue all lawful efforts to require such unsuitable person to relinquish his voting securities including, if necessary, the immediate purchase of said voting securities for cash at fair market value.

The Nevada Commission may, in its discretion, require the holder of any debt security of a Registered Corporation to file applications, be investigated and be found suitable to own the debt security of a Registered Corporation. If the Nevada Commission determines that a person is unsuitable to own such security, then pursuant to the Nevada Act, the Registered Corporation can be sanctioned, including the loss of its approvals, if without the prior approval of the Nevada Commission, it:

- i) pays to the unsuitable person any dividend, interest, or any distribution whatsoever;
- ii) recognizes any voting right by such unsuitable person in connection with such securities;
- iii) pays the unsuitable person remuneration in any form; or
- iv) makes any payment to the unsuitable person by way of principal, redemption, conversion, exchange, liquidation, or similar transaction.

A Registered Corporation may not make a public offering of its securities without the prior approval of the Nevada Commission if the securities or proceeds therefrom are intended to be used to construct, acquire or finance gaming facilities in Nevada, or to retire or extend obligations incurred for such purposes. On June 21 2001, the Nevada Commission granted the Company prior approval to make public offerings for a period of two years subject to certain conditions ("Shelf Approval"). This approval has been extended and remains in place today. However, the Shelf Approval may be rescinded for good cause without prior notice upon the issuance of an interlocutory stop order by the Chairman of the Nevada Board. The Shelf Approval does not constitute a finding, recommendation or approval by the Nevada Commission or the Nevada Board as to the accuracy or adequacy of the prospectus or the investment merits of the securities offered. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful. An application to renew the Shelf Approval (which can only be issued for a maximum term of two years) is being lodged with the Commission.

Other Regulatory requirements – Other Gaming Authorities throughout the world may require any person who acquires a beneficial ownership of more than 5% of a Registered Corporation's voting securities to report the acquisition to the Gaming Authority and in some cases, apply to the Gaming Authority for a finding of suitability within thirty days of acquiring more than 5% of the Registered Corporation's voting securities. The applicant is subject to the same rules as in Nevada in relation to an unsuitable finding. The applicant is required to pay all costs of investigation incurred by the Gaming Authorities.
