

Aristocrat Acquires B2B Online RMG Supplier

Sydney, 26 September 2022

Aristocrat Leisure Limited (ASX: ALL) today announced an agreement to acquire Roxor Gaming, a leading B2B online Real Money Gaming (RMG) supplier. Roxor Gaming is a subsidiary of the privately held London-based Anzo Group.

Roxor's Remote Game Server (RGS) and publishing technology will accelerate delivery of Aristocrat's strategy to grow and scale in online RMG. Roxor's technology is live in the US and UK markets, and is innovative, highly scalable and supports efficient and feature-rich games and game development.

As part of the transaction, Aristocrat will also acquire Roxor's two in-house game development studios, bringing further online RMG-specific technical and product development talent to the Group. Roxor has over 100 employees primarily based in the United Kingdom, along with a deep affiliate network with extensive online RMG experience.

The acquisition is expected to complete in the first quarter of calendar year 2023, subject to regulatory approvals and customary closing conditions. Aristocrat will fund the transaction from existing cash, and the transaction is not expected to have a material earnings impact.
